

Social Facts and Forces: The Factory-The Labor Union, the Corporation-The Railway-The City-The Church (Classic Reprint)

The interest of all these studies is primarily ethical; what kind of men and women we are getting to be is the thing I wish to know. The reader will soon find out that these words have been spoken; their direct and familiar style will make that plain; I should like to have him feel that they are spoken to him. They were given, in the winter of 1895-6, to an audience in Steinway Hall, Chicago, as the Ryder Lectures upon a foundation laid by the eminent and much-lamented pastor of St. Paul's Universalist Church in that city, the Rev. William Henry Ryder. (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and do not occur in the book.)
